1. Purpose

The purpose of this procedure is to publish well-researched and written, factually accurate narrative and documentary histories of NASA’s programs and organization.

2. Scope and Applicability

This OWI covers all NASA-sponsored historical publications issued by the NASA Headquarters History Division.

3. Definitions

3.1 Monograph. A typed manuscript, issued in hard copy and/or electronic format, addressing a single topic. Authors and/or editors of compilations may be single or multiple, and multiple authors may address the same or different subtopics or themes germane to the principal topic.

3.2 Well-Researched. Information presented in the monograph is based on original or primary sources to the extent of their availability. All sources are documented in footnotes, source-notes, or text, as directed by NASA.

3.3 Well-Written. The manuscript is coherent and logically structured by theme, topic, or chronology of events. It is written for an adult audience with college-level reading ability, and conforms to the “Chicago Manual of Style.”

3.4 Historical Program Review Team. Experts in the history of aerospace technology, policy, and business who are routinely consulted to assist in planning and performance evaluations for the NASA History program.

3.5 Statement of Work (SOW). A description of the structure, content, and schedule for the research and writing of a monograph to be issued to internal and external audiences as a NASA Historical publication.

3.6 Procurement Request (NHQ Form 163). A form used to transmit funds from a NASA account to a procurement action.

3.7 GSFC. Goddard Space Flight Center, the center that handles all procurements for NASA Headquarters.
4. References

4.1 42 U.S.C. 2473, National Aeronautics and Space Act of 1958, As Amended; Sect. 203 (a)(3).

4.2 NHB 1101.3, Sect. 408.b(7), The NASA Organization.

<tr>
<td>6.1</td>
<td>Chief Historian</td>
<td>Responding to senior management direction; suggestions received from internal or external sources; or allocation of budget resources in the Program Operating Plan; consult with NASA officials, History Division staff, and Historical Program Review Team, to determine subject(s) meriting preparation and publication of a historical monograph and availability of resources therefor. Determine whether documentary or narrative treatment, or some other final product form, is most appropriate. Treatment determination is based upon experience, education, and knowledge of the issue under review.</td>

<td>If resources are not (or cannot be made) available, the project is deferred. The requestor is notified of that deferral, and the project goes into the “NASA History Division Long Range Publication Plan.”</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.5</td>
<td>Chief Historian</td>
<td>If resources are available prepare “Statement of Work” for Headquarters Procurement at Goddard Space Flight Center (GSFC/210.H) in accordance with standard SOW format and issue a “procurement request” (NHQ 163). The SOW defines the product that the office requires. That product usually involves preparation of a draft manuscript, either documentary or narrative in nature, or an electronic product such as a CD/ROM. The form of the product was determined in Step 6.1 Procurement is performed by GSFC.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.6</td>
<td>Chief Historian</td>
<td>Evaluate the product and any other deliverables against specifications in the SOW; identify necessary changes to be performed to the contractor.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.7</td>
<td>Chief Historian</td>
<td>Does the draft product require changes?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.8</td>
<td>Chief Historian</td>
<td>If changes were required, the product is returned to the contractor for corrections and reenters the evaluation process at Step 6.6.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6.9</td>
<td>Chief Historian</td>
<td>If no changes were required, the product is transferred to Headquarters Printing and Design (Code CFP) for publishing and distribution.</td>
